Located within a serene, private cul-de-sac, you'll be immediately impressed by the privacy of the entrance that leads into a spacious living room, complete with picturesque views of your beautifully landscaped backyard. The large, well-appointed kitchen features a gas cooktop, wall oven, plenty of storage with an array of cupboards and drawers, and space for a dishwasher.

Both bedrooms are generously sized with picture windows and include built-in robes for ample storage. The bathroom is filled with natural light from the skylight and offers a double-sized shower and vanity. A separate laundry, also with a skylight, adds convenience, along with a linen press for additional storage. The remote-controlled garage provides secure, private parking with internal access to the home. Relax on the patio that opens to a peaceful backyard oasis. Maintaining a comfortable climate year-round is easy with ducted heating and cooling throughout the home.
